1.0 Chairs Welcome

The Chair, Lynn Pamment introduced herself and thanked everybody for attending, she said it was great to see so many in attendance for the WSA's first online AGM.

Apologies

No apologies were noted.

2.0 Approval of AGM minutes 1st July 2019

(a) The minutes were unanimously approved by the membership and accepted for accuracy.

3.0 Financial Matters

a) Finance Director, Mark Tweed, presented the WSA & Vibrant Nation Annual Accounts. He noted that WSA were committed to developing services for members. He explained how turnover had significantly increased and how WSA had again managed to reduce their reliance on Sport Wales funding, down from 52% in 2018/19 to 42% in 2019/20. MT described how for the first time in over a decade the WSA had finished the year with a deficit, this was due to successfully defending a membership challenge.

b) MT explained that Vibrant Nation was required to submit Micro Accounts to Companies House, due to its size. Vibrant Nation had made a £4k profit this year and all profits after tax were invested back into services to benefit the membership.

No questions were raised from the membership in respect of the accounts.

(c) MT proposed the appointment of Arthur Gait & Company as auditors for the coming year. This was unanimously approved by the membership.

4.0 WSA Annual Report

The Chief Executive, Victoria Ward, thanked members for attending and presented the main findings of the annual report. VW spoke of the increase in membership, from 2018/19 to 2019/20 and how the membership has continued to grow in this current year. VW talked about the WSA's Covid response work. Looking to the future, VW affirmed the importance of WSA listening to the membership on what their needs are. Victoria disclosed that WSA are out to tender for investigatory work to be undertaken in respect of the shared services requirements of the sector so that we may continue maximising collaboration.

VW explained how the training services had continued to grow, the Welsh Political Landscape training had been really insightful and particularly beneficial in preparing colleagues for the management of their Covid response. VW went on to announce a 121% return on investment through the Governance and Leadership Framework for Wales contract it operates through Vibrant Nation on behalf of Sport Wales. For the future of the contract aspirations would be to make the support service more widely available to stakeholders. B

VW referred to WSA's three-year strategy, due to finished next September, she described how WSA had chosen to have a three-year strategy instead of five years so the organisation could evolve and respond more quickly with the changing landscape. WSA are currently ahead on delivering against all targets set in the strategy and will soon being the process of developing its 2021-2024 strategy, ready for publication in September 2021. The WSA will be consulting with members to ensure their new strategy reflects the needs of the membership.

The Chair encouraged members to take part in the membership survey. Thanks were offered by the membership to WSA for its hard work.

5.0 WSA Covid Impact Report

Matt Williams, Policy & Communications Manager said that the purpose of the Covid Impact Report was to demonstrate the work WSA had been doing since the beginning of the pandemic and how WSA had acted to coordinate a response across the sector through the Business Continuity Forum & the return to sport groups.

The report demonstrates the extent to which WSA's forums had been utilized to share knowledge, experience and issues and work to influence government and policy makers to bring back sport. This being done in a safe and responsible way, helping business to survive and thrive whilst respecting obligations to the community and sports key role in peoples lives. MW explained that the report was a working document, an opportunity to reflect and think about the future. He noted that it was incumbent on the sector to emerge from the pandemic looking to tackle issues of participation in lower socioeconomic groups, BAME communities and women and girls. He divulged that now was the time to look ahead to Senedd elections and work to secure a future for sports over the next 5 years.
